

Everybody loves Fish & Chips

Fish and Chips, Fish and Chips
Everybody loves Fish and Chips
At the seaside take a trip
Go and find yourself some Fish and Chips

You can eat it in the paper on a tray or on a plate
You can eat it with your family
You can eat it with your mate

Fish and Chips
Everybody loves Fish and Chips

At the fishcotoque you can dance
You always give peas a chance
Do it for the Halibut
Salt and vinegar if you fancy it

Fish and Chips, Fish & Chips
Everybody loves Fish and Chips

You can try out eating Haddock and a fishcake is quite mod if you ever lose your faith you can put your trust in Cod!

Fish and Chips
Everybody loves Fish and Chips

I wouldn't hurry for a curry
Don't go screwy for chop suey
KFC is not for me
I can take or leave a pizza pie

Fish and Chips, Fish and Chips
Everybody loves Fish and Chips

We all love Fish and Chips
We all love Fish and Chips
We all love Fish and Chips
We all love Fish and Chips

Mister Fish & Miss Chips Love Song

Battered and deep-fried I am Mister Fish
They queue for me they buy me, and they love me
But here I am all lonely on my own you see
I am Mr Fish, no-one to kiss, waiting for you

Sliced chipped and fried, I am Miss Chips
They queue for me they buy me, and they love me
But here I am all lonely on my own you see
I am Miss Chips, no-one to kiss, waiting for you

Maybe one day I'll find the missing one
The special something, special love, that special one
They must be out there, a companion for my life
I sense it now I'm closer to finding/being my/his wife

I'm looking for something I've not yet tried
Someone quite tasty, tall and trim and deep fried
I'm looking for someone to float my boat
Someone quite rugged wearing a battered overcoat

Maybe one day I'll find the missing one
The special something, special love, that special one
They must be out there, a companion for my life
I sense it now I'm closer to
I sense it now I'm closer to
I sense it now I'm closer to finding/being my/his wife

A Steam Powered Fish & Chips Revolution

Ports, cities, and towns connected by rail
Steam powered trawlers all setting sail
Manufactured Ice for keeping fish fresh
Delivering potatoes north, south, east and west

Giant factories built for steel, textile and bricks
The workforce is hungry for Fish and Chips
Chuffing and puffing, hissing engines and steam iron, and coal forging the dream

The Industrial revolution connects the land and the sea
Fish and Chips on the corner of every street

The Factory Act of eighteen sixty seven Meant maximum hours and more education
The Chimney Sweeps Act of eighteen seventy five Banned children up chimneys and kept them alive

The biggest innovation and change to life
Bringing fresh Fish and Chips to boy, girl, man and wife
The biggest innovation and change to life
Bringing fresh Fish and Chips to boy, girl, man and wife

The Miracle of Fish & Chips

I gotta lie low, gotta keep my head down carrying the biggest secret in town
Forget the Moon landing - Roswell aliens too
I got something bigger - much bigger for you
Pope and the Vatican are all after me
Gonna blow the lid off this conspiracy
Forget Illuminati time for the truth
Time to be illuminated by Holy food
Feeding five thousand with two fish and five loaves
Sounds like a miracle until you really know
Two giant cod, five sacks of spuds
That's all they needed – that's all it took

It's not a mystery
The first time in history
They ever served this dish
It's not a mystery
The first time in history
They ever served Fish & Chips

Now you understand plain and easy to see
It comes from the land and it comes from the sea
Better get down, down on your knees
Put your hands together and say yes please
Time to thank the universe, time to thank God
For mushy peas, gravy, chips, haddock and cod

It's not a mystery
The first time in history
They ever served Fish & Chips

True miracle on your plate
True miracle on your plate
True miracle
True miracle
True miracle
True miracle on your plate

The Great Fish & Chip Wedding

Here comes the fried
The knots to be tied
It's time to cheer
The big day is here

Time now to cheer
The big day is here
A match made in heavenly oil
Please make some room
For the bride and groom
A partnership that no-one can spoil

Now show some pride
For the deep-fried groom and bride
The perfect couple on your dish
Slice the fishcake and make a wish
Don't throw confetti - throw battered bits
Say welcome to Mr and Mrs Fish and Chips

Wrapped together for their first kiss
Together forever it's... Fish and Chips
